How the 2026 World Cup Proves Football Has Never Escaped Politics- And Why That's Powerful

June 13, 2026 by Editor-in-Chief

The 2026 FIFA World Cup and the Inevitable Intersection of Football, Politics, and Globalization

According to FIFA, the 2026 FIFA World Cup, co-hosted by the United States, Canada, and Mexico, will be the most economically impactful edition in history, with an estimated $5.6 billion in direct economic activity. This event, the first to be held across three nations, underscores football's deep entanglement with global political and economic forces, a reality that has defined the sport since its inception.

Evan Sang

About Me!

My name is Evan, and I'm a fourth-year from UCLA with a Statistics and Data Science major and a Digital Humanities minor. I love the practice of narrative building through data visualization and map-making as a counter-practice to the way we see data used in service of empire.

Here's a photo of me (totally)

I believe that data doesn't only have to be used as a tool for colonialism. My hope is to use critical cartography and data visualization within community organizing to better propagate organizational vision, strategy, and campaigns.

Here are some of my favorite maps:

- Interactive Encyclopedia of the Palestinian Question--Places
- UCLA Cops off Campus Abolition Map

Besides being a nerd, I also love to eat out! Here's a list of my favorite places to eat in Westwood (also listed on the map):

About Me:

Hello! I'm Sophia Nguyen, a graduating Asian American Studies major! My primary goal as a critical digital map maker is to work with and center community. As I've engaged with the academy, I've strived to question who the academy serves. I've never engaged with mapping or GIS before, but I'm excited to see how I can utilize this questioning (and do some answering) to work towards a more ethical world of GIS!

A list of things I like, in no particular order:

- my dog Zeus! (re: the photo, but not the patrick one)
- baking bread

- reading sci-fi and fantasy books!
- writing creative non-fiction and other essays (not well, but i write it)

The Three Opens

- Open Source
- Open Standards
- Open Data

My Thinking Cap

Personally, I believe that technology and society need to be viewed holistically- as a part of the entire human experience.

We should constantly evaluate how society and technology are connected and need to affect each other in a balanced way.

I believe ethics uplift civil society because I accept the need to look at communities as a whole and not just subjects/sources of data.

Leads to....

A collaborative open-community

Is this enough?

What is programming?

What is programming?

Importance of an open internet....

A programmer vs. non-programmer

When we see code, we don't give up!

When your program
is a complete mess,
but it does its job

Ethics of technology usage

We use a mix of open and closed source technology on a day-to-day basis, but what is your ethical reasoning for doing so?

So why JavaScript and MapLibre instead of....

It's like learning to cook with only a microwave.....

For convenience, you ignore

- Ingredients
- Healthiness
- Dependency on the tool

But most importantly...

- Why are cooking in the first place!!

GIS Technologies

Open-source vs Closed-Source

<html>
  <body> hi
  </body>
</html>

VS

You can see the code

You can never see the code

Think about why is this important?

Issues with open source:

Detaches technology from ethics and treats it as “neutral”

What is an alternative to open source?

Hint: It's related to ethics!

Google's plan to reinvent ad targeting for the postponed post-cookie era has again been complicated by privacy concerns.

After the Chocolate Factory's Federated Learning of Cohorts (FLoC) proposal for delivering interest-based ads in a privacy-preserving way turned out to have less privacy than the package's ingredient list suggested, the ad biz reworked the technology and rebranded it Topics.

Ad blockers struggle under Chrome's new rules

As deadline for mandatory code rewrite approaches, Manifest v3 still looks like a step backward

 Thomas Claburn

ANALYSIS Next year, Chrome browser extensions – such as ad blockers and other privacy tools – will stop working if they are reliant on an API called Manifest v2 (MV2).

So far, when these extensions are rewritten to work with Chrome's new Manifest v3 (MV3) API, you tend to end up with hobbled software that doesn't work as well.

Privacy should be a right.

“Arguing that you don’t care about the right to privacy because you have nothing to hide is no different than saying you don’t care about free speech because you have nothing to say.”

As should the right to public information

“What are the differences between Mark Zuckerberg and me? I give private information on corporations to you for free, and I’m a villain.

Zuckerberg gives your private information to corporations for money and he’s Man of the Year.”

Julian Assange

Consider

Would you trade in all your passwords in order to use Facebook?

How about handing your phone off to a stranger?

Who decides what is “right” and “wrong”?

We shouldn't force those in our surveys to agree all of those without their consent or “on accident.”

So, why is this important?

We will be working with people.

Working with civil society, there is a non-verbal contract based in the tool that you choose.

Helps us to think of ways to take control of data back towards community ownership

Why is this important?

Think what is being collected and how it could be misused or commodified:

- Images
- Video
- Words
- Names
- Addresses

Open Source and Open Data in Summary

- ✓ Think about what information can be helpful for community members/local organizations
- ✓ Teach and give ownership to local people (Tech included)
- ✗ Extract information without assessing safety and privacy
- ✗ Use any tool available because it's "easy"

Open Source and Open Data

Try to use tools and data that empowers instead of commodifies people. (Including yourself!!!)

Survey Lecture

Logistics

Lecture

Survey Lecture

Designing Community Focused Surveys

Let the community speak for itself.

We should not be making any “conclusions”

Main points

1. Test your survey!

2. We are here to listen and empower NOT take information and leave.

3. Acknowledge and try to avoid as much bias as possible

4. Keep it short.

#1 Reason why you should test your survey.....

Respecting the community.

Checking for respect

- Each question MUST have an important purpose
- If a question is not necessary, DO NOT ask it because it would be “nice to know”.
- Less is more.
- Remember: Each question takes someone’s time
- Remember: Each survey to contributes to survey fatigue

WHAT IS SURVEY FATIGUE?

No

A note about survey fatigue

English

The system confirmed that you are Up-to-date with COVID-19 vaccines.

Would you like to complete the daily Symptom Monitor questions today?

Yes - I need to gain clearance to enter a UCLA site today.

No - I am done and do not need to enter a UCLA site today.

A note about survey fatigue

Please click ALL REGIONS that you will visit today:

(If you are unsure where your building is located, click all of the regions where you think it is located.
Otherwise, your building will not show in the lists on the next page.)

If your location is OUTSIDE of this map, but you still will be at a UCLA site, select REGION M.

A note about survey fatigue

Every survey taken reduces the chance the same person will take a survey in the future.

Make your survey pleasant and meaningful for everyone, another chance may not come.

#2 - We are hear 2 listen

How we listen is important

- Access to internet may be limited
- Language barriers
- Dependent on networking
- Limits to the above could create skewed responses

How we listen is important

- Focus on open-ended questions.
- Do not “lead” (i.e. try to get a specific answer) in questions both open-ended and closed.
- If you must include closed-ended, do not have:
 - Tons of options
 - Long options

Example about language barriers

The COVID-19 vaccine is here. And everyone in California will get a turn.

Safe, free, and effective COVID-19 vaccines are now available to everyone age 16 and up. Let's end this pandemic. Check for available appointments and book your vaccination as soon as you can.

Doing better

STOP AAPI HATE

Our communities stand united against racism. Hate against Asian American Pacific Islander communities has risen during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Together, we can stop it.

Microsoft Forms still requires connecting to Google Spreadsheet

So while it's better for multi-language but more complicated to set up for what we'll be doing.

#3 Minimizing Bias

THE CONFIRMATION BIAS

Critical warning: Who determines what is factual?

What is bias?

Preset notions and values. We all have biases!!!
But we can learn more from people and ourselves when we set aside our own bias and listen.

We should challenge our biases because.....

- Social problems are difficult to solve if we keep assuming (wrong) things.
- To facilitate social change better, we need to start breaking down those assumptions.

How to minimize bias?

First and foremost, emphasize listening:

It is impossible to understand every social problem, but we can start to address societal issues by listening to the people affected without assumptions first.

Minimizing bias

Avoid jargon = Ask simple questions with simple wording

Avoid assumptions = Do not assume people know about your issue

Avoid leading = Do not use subjective claims

Define definitions = Explain terms if you must use them

#4 Keep it Short

Keep it short 4 you and 4 them

Keeping it short

A shorter survey = more space to share people's stories

Tie each question to who you are looking to empower

Open-ended questions = community members can take more time to respond if they want to

Main Takeaway of Survey Design

Be respectful.
